Mr. Harold Weisberg
Rt. 12
Frederick, MD 21701

Dear Harold and Lil:

I hope this note finds you both well. As you have probably figured by now, I did not make the brief trip to Baltimore with the team last week. I most certainly would have made an effort to see you. Lil, I hope you are still following your beloved Orioles; they are having a good year.

Harold, thanks for your response regarding Bill Pepper's book. I do hope that something comes of Mr. Ray's efforts to have a trial. His story, however belated, would be most interesting. Interesting ballistics testing in the last few weeks, huh?

Anyway, I hope you are OK. I just wanted to drop you a note to let you know I am thinking of you both. I continue to appreciate your work. I am re-reading Selections from Whitewash. I still find your arguments fascinating. Let me know if there is anything new or interesting happening.

Sincerely,

Steve August

He phoned. I wrote Jim Tague & Gary Mack for them to see him
